

Privacy Policy

Personal privacy and security of information are mutual concerns of H.O.G.®, its members, and visitors to the Plymouth Chapter UK website. This statement explains the Plymouth Chapter (UK) internet policies and security measures relating to personal privacy and information security.

Plymouth Chapter UK collects and stores the following information about you when you visit the Plymouth Chapter UK website:

- the name of the domain from which you access the internet (for example, aol.com, if you are connecting from an America Online account);
- the date and time you access the site; and the internet address of the website from which you linked directly to our site. The Chapter uses this information to measure the number of visitors to the different sections of its site. This helps the Chapter to make its site more responsive to its members and prospective members.
- Plymouth Chapter UK will not obtain personally identifying information about you when you visit our site unless you choose to provide such information. If you choose to send e-mail, registration, or other personal information over the internet, you do so voluntarily.

Plymouth Chapter UK will not disclose personal information provided to it except as follows:

- At your request, which may be oral, in writing, by telephone, electronic or other means we recognise;
- To assist H.O.G.® in evaluating its programmes and to continue to improve the quality of your on-line and membership experience;
- When disclosure is required by law, such as pursuant to court order, subpoena, legal process or government agency examination or investigation, or to protect or enforce our rights;
- In connection with Harley-Davidson™ corporate due diligence and audits.

By your use of and connection to our website, you understand and consent to this privacy statement. If for any reason you are concerned that the personal or member information maintained by the Chapter is not correct or if for some reason you believe Plymouth Chapter (UK) has not adhered to these privacy principles, please notify us by calling +44 (0)1752 283 253.